

JULIAN F. ALWILL

Rothschild & Alwill, APC

27 W. Anapamu St. #289, Santa Barbara, CA 93101

Office: (805) 845-1190/ Mobile: (949) 244-7121

julian@ralegal.com

www.SmartMediate.com

Legal and Professional Experience

2018-Present August-Present

Southern California Institute of Law, 1525 State Street, Santa Barbara, California 93101

Professor in Contracts and Torts

2011-Present November-Present

Rothschild & Alwill APC, 27 W. Anapamu Suite #289, Santa Barbara, CA 93101

Attorney & Partner for litigation firm specializing in employment law, torts, and personal injury

2009-2011 May-March

Law Office of Nicolas C. Vratovic, 826 South A. St, Oxnard, CA 93030

Attorney for solo practitioner specializing in employment law, personal injury, and consumer rights

Additional Experience/Publications

2026-Present

Arbitrator, through American Arbitration Association (AAA) on the Employment Panel

2025-Present

Mediator, through American Arbitration Association (AAA), Resolve Law, Los Angeles Superior Court Mediation Volunteer Panel, Ventura Superior Court Panel, Tulare Mediation Panel, and privately, in employment law and personal injury

2014-Present

Speaker, for National Business Institute and for Sterling Education on employment law, trade secrets, defamation, privacy rights, human resources, and competition law
Spoken at approximately one dozen seminars

2026

Published, "Is It Time To Consider Making Courts Fully Remote?," The Daily Journal, Mar. 2026

Certification

Mediating the Litigated Case (40hr. Training)

Pepperdine University, Malibu, California, January 2026

Judge Pro Tem

Kern County Superior Court, sworn-in December 2025

Los Angeles Superior Court, sworn-in October 2025

Education

University of San Diego School of Law, 2008 — Juris Doctor; admitted to the State Bar of California

University of California, Irvine, 2005 — B.A. Economics; minor in Latin

ABLE TO CONDUCT MEDIATIONS/HEARINGS IN SPANISH